ZUMBA
 NEW CLASS FOR WOMEN!
 LADIES, LET'S ZUMBA!
 Tuesdays at 8 pm Starting November 2

Dear Friends,

The High Holidays are NOT over. The "Time of our Rejoicing" has arrived - Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah are the grand finale to the High Holidays. The joyous Festival of Sukkot coming so closely after the solemn days of Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur is no mistake. The High Holiday Season is continuing to unfold around us. What the Shofar on Rosh Hashanah and our fasting on Yom Kippur accomplished is brought to fruition through our unbridled joy during Sukkot.

King David writes in the book of Tehilim "Hazorim Bedima, Berina Yiktzoru" – "He who sows with tears will reap with joy." After the tears of the days of awe comes the joy of Sukkot. After all of the praying, fasting and soul-searching, we confidently rejoice in the knowledge we have improved ourselves and that G-d will grant us all a sweet and happy new year.

One of the highlights at Palm Beach Synagogue is our Simchat Torah celebration. It's a night that you will never... remember! With Jewish joy and pride we dance the night away as we revel in the love and inspiration we receive from our holy Torah. I look forward to singing and dancing with you on Simchat Torah night, Thursday, September 30th.

Dinie and I wish you and your family a Chag Sameach and may the happiness last all year round.

With warm wishes,

Rabbi Moshe E. Scheiner

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends:

What a way to finish off September! Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur in our dazzling sanctuary was magical... Davening led by Chazzan Schulhof was delightful and the Rabbi's drashot were breathtaking in spirit and impact.

As September ebbed, we transitioned to Succoth, with deep thanks to our Tabernacle Crew led by Evan Goldstein. They've got the art of Sukkah construction down to a science! And just in time, we're beginning to feel some cool air wafting from the North, gentle breezes promising perfect weather.

You will soon be receiving a program guide outlining the educational courses, visiting Chazzanim and renowned guests and lecturers for the coming season. Truly, this winter will be incredible. Watch for it in the mail! Thanks to Rebbetzin Dinie and Barbara Zimet for all the dedicated and loving attention necessary to produce such a beautiful and professional product.

The Board has passed the budget for 2010-2011. With your help, I am certain that we will continue to exceed expectations, and maintain the community services to which the Shul has been devoted. During October and November, volunteers will be calling to solicit support for the building campaign. Our ambition is to give every member the opportunity to do their best for PBS, and your supportive generosity will be deeply appreciated.

And just a reminding save-the-date... the Palm Beach Synagogue Gala will be on Thursday evening, January 20, at Mar-a-Lago Club. Can you trump that? The Gala committee is already gearing up and is eager to accept volunteer aid; please call our resident super-multitasker Ayelet Paz Matheson who will be delighted to hear from you.

Summer is almost over, so enjoy the last vestiges of torrid humidity and prepare for a wonderful season. Enjoy Simchat Torah and a marvelous October!

Warmly,

Eric Weiner

Mahmud Nasir is a loving husband, doting father and something of a relaxed Muslim.

He may not be the most observant, but in his heart he is a true Muslim. After his mother’s death, Mahmud finds his birth certificate, which reveals that he was adopted at birth and . . . he’s Jewish, with the real name of Solly Shimshillewitz! Mahmud goes headlong into a full-scale identity crisis, and the only person he can turn to is Lenny (Richard Schiff), a Jewish cabbie. Mahmud soon embarks on lessons in Jewishness, starting with how to dance like Topol and how to say oy vey. This revelation could not have come at a worse time with his son about to marry the stepdaughter of a radical Muslim cleric.
